Dear Guests,

Welcome to the 2026 edition of North Texas Quilt Festival and Original Sewing & Quilt Expo. We hope you'll enjoy this year's theme, "God Bless America: We the Piece Makers," and the stunning quilts created by makers who poured their hearts into every stitch. These quilts tell a story about this community — creative, generous, and endlessly inspired. Let's celebrate 250 years of American spirit!

None of this would be possible without the guild members who are passionate about bringing this show to life: Bear Creek Quilt Guild, Fort Worth Modern Quilt Guild, Fort Worth Quilt Guild, Irving Quilt Guild, Mid-Cities Modern Quilters, Quilters' Guild of Arlington, Quilter's Guild of Dallas, and Trinity Valley Quilters' Guild. Please stop by and visit with them — their dedication to the arts makes this event truly one-of-a-kind.

We are also deeply grateful to our sponsors, whose generosity adds so much to the program. This event also exists because people like you believe that making something from scratch matters and that what you create may be treasured now and for generations. That creativity is worth protecting, nurturing, and celebrating out loud. We created this weekend for you...what will you discover?

This week, we're all piece makers — in every sense of the word. Have a wonderful time.

Susan Turk, Director
North Texas Quilt Festival

Mark Ingraham, Director
Original Sewing & Quilt Expo
